Swarthmore sends coad

By CRAIG EVANS Of The Bulletin Staff

For Swarthmore High track coach Bob McCullough, the 1980 season has been one extended going-away present. Next season, he will be teaching and coaching at Unionville, leaving a talented collection of young athletes ning the girls' Class AA title by nearly 100 points, Swarthmore was using its depth and some above-average performances to claim its trophy.

The Indians took only two firsts, Jim Taylor winning the 1,600-meter run in a district-record time of 4:29.4 and Drexel Brooks taking the 200 in :23.09.

"Last year, I was more of a sprinter than a jumper," said Brooks, a skilled soccer player as well. "This year, I think, I'm a better jumper. I've been getting more consistent, improving by about four or five inches every meet.'

Brooks had plenty of motivation for this meet. Last year, as a long-

Sydnor, Martin lead the assault as District 1 track marks fall

The main excitement at yesterday's District 1 track and field championships was the number of district records set on the fast all-weather track at Delaware Valley College in Doylestown.

Martin's time in the 200 was also faster than the state record of 25.76 set by Williamsport's Tami Hart last spring, but a state record must be established in the state meet. So Martin will have to repeat her per-formance at Shippensburg State next week to get state-wide credit.

Other individual records were set by Lois Hatzenbeller of William Tennent in the girls' AAA 100-meter hurdles (14.54), Rick McCracken of Interboro in the boys' AAA 110 hurdles (14 70), Van Showell of Garnet Valley in the boys' AA 100-meter dash (11.439), Kim Gallagher of Upper Dublin in the girls' AAA 1,600-meter run (4.54.95), Jim Taylor of Swarth-more in the boys' AA 1,600-meter run (4 29 40), Patricia Malischewski of Perkiomen Valley in the girls' AA 800 meters (2:16.89) and John Adam Brown of Darby Township in the boys' AA triple jump (47 feet, 5 inch-

Area stars cop field wins in district meet's first day

(Local News Correspondent)

Although most of the action will be finished up today, the Ches-Mont and Southern Chester County Leagues have already made some impressive showings at the two-day PIAA District 1 AAA and AA Boys and Girls Track and Field championships at Delaware Valley-College in-Doylestown.

The running events consisted solely of preliminaries yesterday, but the finals were held in 14 different field categories and locals came away with four championships.

Drew Sokso of Coatesville was the first to win, taking the AAA shot put with a throw of 52-11/4. His closest competition came from Pottstown's Matt Gombos, who managed a 51-1. Also scoring was -Great Valley's Tom Hewitt, who was

Avon-Grove's Janell McMillan took the AA discus with a toss of exactly 100 feet. Pottsgrove's Lorene Little was third, and Northern Vo Tech's Debbie Nagy fifth.

Kennett's Mike Gain won the AA javelin throw with a hurl of 170-1; Pottsgrove's David Braunsberg and Norco Tech's Mike Zohe were fourth and

And Stacey Weldon of West Chester Henderson took the AAA long jump with a leap of 17-101/2. She, too, was challenged most closely by another Ches-Mont athlete, Coatesville's Theresa McCrumn, who jumped 17-91/4. Great Valley's Cindy Jackmon was fifth, and West Chester East's Cheryl Dodson sixth.

Avon-Grove's McMillan also took third in the AA shot put, where Pottsgrove's Little was second. Norco Tech's Cheryl Siz bert and Kennett's Winnie Brown were fifth and sixth.

In other AA girls action, Renee Toalton scored for Octorara by taking third in the AA long jump; Norco Tech's Karla Washington was fourth.

In AA boys events, Pottsgrove's Scott Clay was second in the discus; Unionville's George Ziminsky tied for second in the high jump, where Pottsgrove's Chris Hall tied for fifth. Norco Tech's Andy Griffin was third in the long jump, while Kennett's Dean Lee was fifth,

In other AAA girls events, Spring-Ford's Anne Peifer was third in the javelin, Downingtown's Tina Arcare sixth;

and Kathy Segner of Owen J. Roberts was fifth in the high jump.

In other AAA boys action, Pottstown's Ernest McCalvin was third in the long

In running events, Phoenixville's Marian Ambrose was one of the day's top performers, qualifying for the AAA 100meter-low hurdles with a time of 14.2 (tied for fastest of the day), and the 100-

Kennett's Tom Nocho's time of 49.9 was by far the fastest qualifying time for the AA 400-meter dash.

Besides her impressive finish in the long jump, Vo Tech's Karla Washington qualified for the AA 200-meter dash with a 26.4 (best of the day) and the 400-meter

West Chester East's Terry Gallimore qualified in the AAA 100-meter dash, 400meter dash, and 200-meter dash.

Norco Tech's David Washington qualified for the AA 400-meter dash and 800meter run.

And Downingtown's Ted Robinson advanced in the AAA 100- and 200-meter dashes, as did Great Valley's Joe Dil'aul.

Raider boys 4th, Kennett 3rd in districts

By GENE MORRIS (Local News Correspondent)

It's pretty safe to say that the Ches-Mont and Southern Chester County Leagues have enjoyed better days at the District I Boys Track Championships. Though Coatesville finished fourth among Class AAA schools, the only Indi-vidual winner for the Red Halders was high-tumper. Floyed Thompson, who high-jumper Floyd Thompson, who cleared 6-6. As a team the Raiders tallied 33 points, behind North Penn (66), Chester and Wissahickon (441/2).

In Class AA Kennett picked up a pair of wins and came in third with 52 points, trailing Swarthmore (103) and Darby Township (78).

Kennett's Tom Nocho won the 400 meter run for the second year in a row (50.65) and took second in the 200 (23.15), also the same as a year ago. The unit of Mike Brown, Van Barrett, Joe Wilson and Nocho set a meet record (3:26.56) in cap-turing the 1,600 relay.

Unionville was eighth overall with 28 points, and Randy Lieberman won the shot put with a 50-11 toss

Raider boys 4th, Kennett 3rd in districts

By GENE MORRIS (Local News Correspondent)

It's pretty safe to say that the Ches-Mont and Southern Chester County Leagues have enjoyed better days at the District I Boys' Track Championships.

Though Coatesville finished fourth among Class AAA schools, the only individual winner for the Red Raiders was high-jumper Floyd Thompson, who cleared 6-6. As a team the Raiders tallied 33 points, behind North Penn (66), Chester (45) and Wissahickon (44'2).

In Class AA Kennett picked up a pair of wins and came in third with 52 points, trailing Swarthmore (103) and Darby

By JIM BURGER
(Local News Correspondent)

The Coatesville Red Raiders didn't win any events outright, but their depth propelled them to a second-place finish in the District 1 AAA girls track championships at Doylestown this weekend.

The Raiders edged Upper Dublin by a quarter of a point (39-38%), thanks to strong efforts from Sue Brown (second place in the 100-meter dash), Monica Moore (third in the 100 low hurdles), and Theresa McCrumn (second in the long jump, third in the triple jump). The Coatesville 400-meter relay team also finished third.

The only area AAA record-setter, however, was Great Valley's sophomore sensation Cindy Jackmon, who shattered the three-year-old district triple jump record of 37-112 with a leap of 37-1014. McCrumr's third-place was 37-134, also better than the old record.

Could feel it coming

Jackmon, whose triple jump Saturday followed a fifth-place finish in the long jump Friday, said she could feel it com-

"When I got up this morning," she said a few hours after breaking the record, "I thought I was gonna do well. Yesterday I was so upset about my long jump, I knew I had to go out and do my best."

Her best turned out to be over a foot more than her previous high of 36-9.

Stacey Weldon of West Chester Hender-

Phoenixville's Marian Ambrose was also a standout, taking second place in the 100 hurdles, and fifth in the 100 dash.

AA action

The girls from Perkiomen Valley steamrolled in the AA competition gamering an incredible 136 points, but area schools did an excellent job of salvaging what was left.

Octorara and Avon-Grove tied for third with 38, Kennett tied for fifth with 36, Northern Vo Tech took seventh with 32, Unionville's 31 was good for eighth, and Pottsgrove was ninth with 22.

Unionville junior Candy Cashell showed once again that there isn't anyone in the district who can come close to her in the high jump, breaking the record of 5-6 she set as a freshman and tied as a sophomore, with a leap of 5-8. Her closest competition came from Avon-Grove's Janell McMillan, who cleared 5-5.

It was the first time Cashell had jumped without a back brace since tearing a muscle in last year's districts. She waited until after the state competition, in which she cleared 5-10 and finished second on misses, before getting the brace.

McMillan was quite a story herself, leading Avon-Grove, and qualifying for state competition in four different events-the high jump, discus (which she won with a throw of 100 feet even), shot put (third place), and triple jump (second place).

Octorara's 400-meter relay team of Melissa McIntyre, Laverne London, Dawn Thomas, and Renee Toaltoan was also a record-setter, destroying the district record of 51.84 Avon-Grove set last year

Nocho may be underestimating himself just a bit.

The senior won't get a chance to prove that in the 100 again, but he'll be a key man for Kennett in three other events next weekend.

The running events consisted solely of preliminaries yesterday, but the finals were held in 14 different field categories and locals came away with four championships.

Drew Sokso of Coatesville was the first to win, taking the AAA shot put with a throw of 52-11/4. His closest competition came from Pottstown's Matt Gombos, who managed a 51-1. Also scoring was Great-Valley's -Tom-Hewitt, who was

Avon-Grove's Janell McMillan took the AA discus with a toss of exactly 100 feet. Pottsgrove's Lorene Little was third, and Northern Vo Tech's Debbie Nagy fifth.

Kennett's Mike Gain won the AA javelin throw with a hurl of 170-1; Pottsgrove's David Braunsberg and Norco Tech's Mike Zohe were fourth and fifth.

And Stacey Weldon of West Chester Henderson took the AAA long jump with a leap of 17-101/2. She, too, was challenged most closely by another Ches-Mont ath-lete, Coatesville's Theresa McCrumn, who jumped 17-914. Great Valley's Cindy Jackmon was fifth, and West Chester East's Cheryl Dodson sixth.

Avon-Grove's McMillan also took third in the AA shot put, where Pottsgrove's Little was second. Norco Tech's Cheryl Sibert and Kennett's Winnie Brown were fifth and sixth.

In other AA girls action, Renee Toalton scored for Octorara by taking third in the AA long jump; Norco Tech's Karla Washington was fourth. In AA boys events, Pottsgrove's Scott Clay was second in the discus; Unionville's George Ziminsky tied for second in the high jump, where Pottsgrove's Chris Hall tied for fifth. Norco Tech's Andy Griffin was third in the long jump, while Kennett's Dean Lee was fifth.

In other AAA girls events, Spring-Ford's Anne Peifer was third in the jave-/lin, Downingtown's Tina Arcaro sixth;

and Kathy Segner of Owen J. Roberts was fifth in the high jump.

In other AAA boys action, Pottstown's Ernest McCalvin was third in the long jump.

In running events, Phoenixville's Marian Ambrose was one of the day's top per-formers, qualifying for the AAA 100meter-low-hurdles with a time of 14:2-(tied for fastest of the day), and the 100meter dash.

Kennett's Tom Nocho's time of 49.9 was by far the fastest qualifying time for the AA 400-meter dash.

Besides her impressive finish in the long jump, Vo Tech's Karla Washington qualified for the AA 200-meter dash with a 26.4 (best of the day) and the 400-meter

West Chester East's Terry Gallimore qualified in the AAA 100-meter dash, 400meter dash, and 200-meter dash.

Norco-Tech's David Washington qualified for the AA 400-meter dash and 800meter run.

And Downingtown's Ted Robinson advanced in the AAA 100- and 200-meter dashes, as did Great Valley's Joe DiPaul.
